

Verse 1

Our worldly possessions are plentiful as such,
On our wedding present list
there really isn't much,
A gift of currency is all we ask
To help us on our lifelong task.

Verse 2 (extended)

Our worldly possessions are
plentiful as such,
On our wedding present list
there really isn't much,
A gift of currency is all we ask
To help us on our lifelong task,
though if you have the perfect gift in mind
do not feel disinclined.

Verse 3

Don't go walking all over town
To find that perfect gift.
Our cupboards are bulging,
Our shelves have bowed
Our house we need to fit.
Pots and pans we already have Toaster, towels as well.
The perfect gift we could receive
Is money in our wishing well.
This would be the greatest gift
Our faces they will gleam
To buy that piece of furniture
Which till now is just a dream.

Verse 4

Your presence at our wedding is present enough!
But if we're honored with a gift from you,
may we respectfully request a gift of money to help the dream of our new home come true!

Verse 5

We have two of everything because joining lives means joining households, too!
So please don't give us another toaster -- a gift of money is what we'd appreciate from you!

Verse 6

Many of our family and friends have asked for gift suggestions.
Like many young couples today, we have accumulated most items necessary for our home.
For those who would like gift suggestions,
a gift voucher from . . .
or monetary gift would be appreciated.
However, if you decide not to use this option, please be assured that any gift that you care to give will be gladly received.

Verse 7

So what do you get
For the Bride and Groom
Whose house needs things
In every room?
When shopping for a present
Please, don't be rash
As the option is there
To just give cash!
We hope that you don't find
Our request to be funny
But the decision is yours
To buy a present, or give money
Now you have the choice
Please do not fuss
The most important thing of all
Is that you come celebrate with us!

Verse 8

May no gift be too small to give,
Nor too simple to receive which is wrapped with thoughtfulness and tied with love.
To save you looking, shopping and buying,
We have an idea we hope you like trying;
On arriving at our reception, there you will see
Not a table for gifts, but a "Money Tree".
Just place some money in an envelope, along with a card
And put in the tree - see, that wasn't hard!
Now that we have saved you all that fuss,
We hope to see you there to celebrate with us.

Verse 9

Wishing Well
Our home is quite complete now, we've been together long,
So please consider our request and do not take us wrong,
A delicate request it is, we hope you understand,
Please play along as it will give our married life a hand.
The tradition of the wishing well is one that's known by all,
Go to the well, toss in a coin and as the coin does fall,
Make a wish upon that coin and careful as you do,
Cause as the well's tradition goes your wishes will come true.
So on this special day of ours, the day that we'll be wed,
Don't hunt for special gifts but give money in its stead,
And as you drop the envelope with money great or small,
Remember, make your wish as you watch your money fall.

Verse 10

"What gift do we buy?" you may sigh
Now to our invite you've replied.
Please do not stress
We would love it best
if some money you could provide.
Tucked away in a card,
Now that's not too hard
If that's what you would like to do.
Now we've saved you the fuss,
Come join with us
On the day we say, "I do".

Verse 11

Because at first we lived in sin
We've got the sheets and a rubbish bin!
A gift from you would be swell
But we'd prefer a donation
To our wishing well!
We hope that you don't find
our request to be funny
but the decision is yours
to buy a present or give money
Now you have the choice
Please do not fuss
The most important thing of all

Verse 12

They have their dishes and towels for two,
They have pots and pans and oven mitts too.
So what do you get for the bride & groom
whose house is setup in every room?
Their house needs repairs and some upgrades too,
But you can not register for carpet and glue.
A tree that grows wishes is the way to go,
so lets make it easy for all that know.

Verse 13

So on this special day or ours,
the day that we'll be wed.
Don't hunt for special gifts
but give money is it's stead.
And as you drop the envelope,
with money great and small,
Remember, make your wish as you watch your money fall.

Verse 14

We hope that you will join us,
on this our special day,
To celebrate our union
in a very special way.
To make it easy for you and avoid a shopping spree
We thought that we would have instead,
a little money tree.
Because we've been together,
for a while now,
We collected all our household things
before we took our vows.
An envelope has been included
for you to bless our tree,
No name is required for each gift,
as anonymity is the key!
So please don't be offended
at our new type of request,
Just telling everyone our wish,
has really put us to the test!

Verse 15

To save you looking,
shopping and buying,
Here is an idea
we hope you'll like trying!
Come to our wedding
to wish us both well,
And make some use
of our little wishing well.
Just put some money into a card,
Now make a wish....
See, that wasn't hard!
Now that we have saved you all of the fuss,
We hope that you will come
And celebrate with us!

Verse 16

So what do you get for the bride & groom,
Whose house needs some things in every room?
Some things are large, some things are small,
Some things they just don't really need at all!
For those things small this happy two,
Have supplied a gift registry for you.
For those things large a wish tree's the way,
To say congratulations on the big day.

Verse 17

We're dreaming of a honeymoon and we hope our dreams come true... if you helped us fund our trip
we'd be so grateful to you!

Verse 18

We have our hearts set on a trip to Hawaii,
We're saving every nickel and dime.
So if you aren't sure what to get for a wedding present
A gift of cash would be just divine!
